ENDOSCOPIC DETECTION AND MANAGEMENT OF EARLY UPPER GASTROINTESTINAL CANCER

20th February (Friday)

• 9.00 Introduction. Magnus Nilsson

• 9.10 The status in detection of early lesions in the esophagus in Sweden. Peter Elbe

• Squamous cell carcinoma
9.40 How may we improve detection? Richard Ohya
10.10 What are the lesions suitable for endoscopic treatment? Richard Ohya

• 10.40 Coffee break

• Barrett’s esophagus
11.00 How do the first evaluation? Is there any role for advanced endoscopic detection techniques? Raf Bisschops
11.30 Should all Barrett’s patients be followed in referral centers? What lesions are suitable for endoscopic treatment? Krish Ragunath
12.00 Pathologist view: what is the role of low-grade dysplasia? Michael Vieth

• 12.30 Lunch

• Gastric cancer
13.30 How to detect and evaluate early gastric cancer? Francisco Silva
14.00 Pathologist view: what are the implications of intestinal metaplasia and low-grade dysplasia? Michael Vieth

• 14.30 Endoscopic treatment of early GI cancer. Francisco Silva

• 15.00 Clinical cases & discussion.

• 15.45 Questions and final remarks.

• 16.00 End of session.